DURABLE GENERAL POWER OF ATTORNEY

NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

THE POWERS YOU GRANT BELOW CONTINUE TO BE EFFECTIVE SHOULD YOU BECOME DISABLED OR INCOMPETENT

Caution: This is an important document. It gives the person whom you designate (your "Agent") broad powers to handle your property during your lifetime, which may include powers to mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice to you or approval by you. Then powers will continue to exist even after you become disabled or incompetent. These powers are explained more fully in New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15, Sections 5-1502A through 5-1503, which expressly permit the use of any other or different form of power of attorney.

This document does not authorize anyone to make medical or other health care decisions. You may execute a health care proxy to do this.

If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

THIS is intended to constitute a DURABLE GENERAL POWER OF ATTORNEY pursuant to Article 5, Title 15 of the New York General Obligations Law:

I, do hereby appoint:
(insert your name and address)

(If one person is to be appointed agent, insert the name and address of your agent above)

(If two or more persons are to be appointed agents by you, insert their name and addresses above)

my attorney(s)-in-fact TO ACT

(If more than one agent is designated, CHOOSE ONE of the following two choices by putting your initials in ONE of the blank spaces to the left of your choice.)

- Each agent may SEPARATELY act.
 All agents must act TOGETHER.

(If neither blank space is initialed, the agents will be required to act TOGETHER)

IN MY NAME, PLACE AND STEAD, in any way which I myself could do, if I were personally present, with respect to the following matters as each of them is defined in Title 15 of Article 5 of the New York General Obligations Law to the extent that I am permitted by law to act through an agent:

DIRECTIONS: Initial in the blank space to the left of your choice any one or more

The library is unable to determine what form you should use and we cannot assist you in filling out any form. About legal forms This research guide links you to resources where you may find commonly used legal forms for free. These are usually created by legal aid organizations, nonprofit groups, or may be offered by county or district clerks' offices. You will not always find a downloadable, fill-in-the-blank form for your situation. If you cannot find a form online, you may need to look at legal practice guides either at a law library in person or via our Digital Collection. If you still cannot find a form, one may not exist and you or your attorney may need to create a custom form. How do I use these forms? The library cannot advise you on how to use a form or whether a form is appropriate for your situation. An attorney or a legal aid organization could advise you on how to use a form, what to include, or help you determine which form is appropriate. Why can't I find the legal form I'm looking for? The state publishes very few legal forms for use in legal proceedings. Because each lawsuit is different, it is difficult to create standard fill-in-the-blank forms. Instead, many private publishers create drafting guides or templates that are commonly referred to as "legal forms." Depending on the specifics of your situation, a drafting guide may need to be customized for your specific set of facts. How can the library help me? The library can help you determine if a form by a specific name is located online or in a library resource. We may also point you to library resources or other websites that discuss a specific legal topic and may contain drafting guides or templates. We cannot help you determine what form you need or assist you in filling out a form. We cannot tell you if a form is appropriate for your situation. If you need information on Texas divorce laws and resources that help explain the law, please see our Divorce research guide. CAUTION: Consult a lawyer before using any of these forms. No expressed or implied warranty or representation is made that any of these forms will meet your legal needs. These forms are for use in district court. Some Texas counties conduct family matters in county court. Some courts have local rules that could affect use of these forms. A lawyer can tell you if one of these forms will work for you. You can speak to a parenting time specialist through the Access and Visitation hotline from 1:00-5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, at 1 (866) 292-4636. The Statement may be used to file papers with the court clerk without paying a filing fee. Use this form if you cannot afford to pay court fees because you have a very low income. Fees may or may not be waived. It is up to the Judge to decide whether to waive the court costs. The Judge may ask for a hearing to decide whether you are unable to pay the court costs. Since not all forms require a fee, ask the clerk if the document you want to file requires a fee. Click this link Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs or an Appeal Bond. Motion for Mediation Motion for Mediation is a form that can be filed with the clerk once a lawsuit has been filed. The parties can agree to mediate or one or both parties may request the court to order it. File the Motion for Mediation together with the Mediation Order (contact local law library). Motion for Social Study The social study is a court-ordered investigation of the circumstances and home life of the parents and the child. It is usually conducted by a social worker, who will visit the home of each parent and interview the child, the parents, and other persons involved in the child's life. When the investigation is finished, the social worker will write a recommendation to the court about the child's best interest, including where the child should primarily live and the parenting time schedule that would be best. The parties are usually ordered to each pay half of the cost of the social study. Motion for Temporary Orders File this form when you and the other party cannot agree to a temporary arrangement for parenting, child support, or other issues before the final hearing date. Order of Referral to Mediation The Order of Referral to Mediation is an order the judge signs after ordering the parties into mediation. A Motion for Mediation is typically required before a judge will order the parties into mediation. Waiver of Service Court papers must be served on the person being sued unless that person waives their right to service of the papers by signing the Waiver of Service form in front of a notary public. This form indicates that you waive your right to have court papers served on you. Read the waiver carefully to make sure that you understand the rights that are being waived.
